

ASSISTANT TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

OVERVIEW

The Assistant Technical Director (ATD) is responsible for assisting the Technical Director in the preparation, organization and safe execution of the scenery for productions, residencies, concerts and special events (both on- and off-site as well as online) produced by the Fisher Center, Bard's Theater & Performance and Dance Programs, and Bard SummerScape Festival. Additionally, this position supports in-person performances at the Fisher Center featuring The Orchestra Now, Bard College Conservatory of Music, and rental/partnership programs.

Reporting directly to the Fisher Center's Technical Director the ATD works with professional and student labor, other members of the FC Production Department, commercial scene shops and various vendors to ensure that all scenic elements are executed on time, on budget and in alignment with and in service to the FC's artistic mission.

The ideal start date for this position is January 3, 2022. The hours for this position will vary due to the needs of the individual productions. This position requires 20-30 hours a week during the academic year, though more hours may be necessary. During the SummerScape festival, this position will require approximately 40 hours a week.

This is a non-exempt (overtime eligible) hourly position; rate range of $23–25, commensurate with experience level.

This position requires in-person work at the Fisher Center.
